South East Asia Scholarship for the Department of Learning Technologies

Purpose:
The purpose of this scholarship is to increase the number of graduate students studying in fields that are priorities for Texas and Thailand or Southeast Asia. Specifically, the intention is to promote research and academic study related to the broad area of Learning Technologies in the Department of Learning Technologies and within the College of Information.

Amount:
$1,000

Eligibility:
The scholarship is open to any newly admitted, full-time (as defined by UNT) graduate student in a residential program within the Department of Learning Technologies. It is open to residents of Texas as well as non-residents. Only new incoming students beginning in the fall or spring semesters are eligible for the award.

Application Process:
Applicants will use the application made available to them via the department of Learning Technologies: http://www.lt.unt.edu/scholarships

Selection:
The department awards committee will review applicants competitively. Criteria for selection will include academic merit, prior experience in the field, and/or evidence of future career goals aligned with priorities for Texas and Thailand or Southeast SE Asia within the programmatic offerings above as demonstrated in the application materials and essay.

Requirements:
Applicants must be accepted to a residential graduate program in the department of Learning Technologies and enrolled full-time, both at the time of application and during the period of the award. Students must be fully admitted by the start date of their first spring semester, in the case they are conditionally admitted for the fall. Students will not receive the scholarship until they are enrolled for their first fully-admitted semester in their degree program.

Timeline:
The scholarship application will be available by February 28, 2014 and the deadline for applications is March 30, at 11:59 p.m. (CST). The committee will review applications during April and notify students regarding recipients by the first week of May.

Publicity Plan:
- Links with SFAS: https://financialaid.unt.edu/
- College Web Page/Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/groups/139226362816627/
- UNT-I Web Page/Facebook: https://international.unt.edu/
- Email announcement to all colleges and applicable administrative units such as Admissions
Announcement:

The UNT Department of Learning Technologies announces the South East Asia Scholarship. The purpose of this scholarship is to increase the number of graduate students studying in fields that are priorities for Texas and Thailand or Southeast Asia. Specifically, the intention for this scholarship is to promote research and academic study related to the broad area of Learning Technologies in the department of Learning Technologies and within the college of Information.

Amount:
$1,000

Eligibility Requirements

• At the time of application (February), applicants must be newly admitted (incoming) the prior fall or during spring of application. Must be fully (not provisionally) admitted at the time of application (spring).
• Must be enrolled full-time in the Department of Learning Technologies at the time of application as well as during the time of award disbursement
• Must be Full time residential students
• Must show evidence of future career goals aligned with priorities for Texas and Thailand or Southeast SE Asia within the programmatic offerings above as demonstrated in the application materials and essay

How to Apply

To apply for the South East Asia Scholarship, go to https://lt.unt.edu/scholarships and read the instructions for S. E. Asia Scholarship and then go to the scholarship web page, link above, to apply. Applications will become available on February 28, 2014. The deadline for the South East Asia Scholarship is March 30, at 11:59 p.m. (CST). Application includes (1) cover letter, (2) most recent Vita, (3) general research study/research plan to show how your academic goals align with the purpose of South East Asia Scholarship. Application packet will be electronically sent to committee chair via email: Dr. Ji Hoon Song, jihoon.song@unt.edu

We also recommend all students, international and domestic, review the main UNT Student Financial Aid and Scholarships website, which includes financial aid opportunities that are not administered by the Department of Learning Technologies or UNT-International. If you have any questions about the South East Asia Scholarship, please email International.Scholarships@unt.edu.